HISTORICAL BUILDING CERTIFICATION FORM For the Purpose of Using Chapter 9 of the RI REHAB CODE

The use of Chapter 9 for Historical Buildings in the Rhode Island Rehab Code is voluntary. In order to take advantage of the provisions of this chapter, a building must meet one of four criteria that defines a building as historic, as certified by the Rhode Island Historical Preservation and Heritage Commission. In addition, the historic building must be equipped with an approved fire alarm system installed in accordance with provisions of R.I.G.L. Chapter 23-28.25 as amended.

Please provide the following information about the subject property, with the required attachments, to the RIHPHC for certification of your building's historical designation.
